

A hand-drawn sketch of a rectangular frame. The frame is composed of thick black lines. On the left and right sides, there are decorative, wavy, scroll-like elements. In the top-left corner, there is a small, empty rectangular box. In the center of the frame, the words "Nigro" and "Ward" are written in a stylized, cursive font. "Nigro" is on the top line and "Ward" is on the bottom line. The entire sketch is rendered in black ink on a white background.
